I speak French.
Please provide me with an interpreter.

Under Title VI of the 1964 Civil Rights Act, agencies that receive federal funds must provide the services of a professionally trained interpreter to clients who are not fluent in English. This law is meant to provide all people with equal access to public services. The interpreter's services must be provided at no cost to the client.

For more information on Title VI, call the U.S. Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division at 1-888-848-5306 or U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Region IX Office for Civil Rights: 1-415-437-8310.
