

SHARE'S TARGET program recently received a national award from the Association of State and Territorial Health Officials for the program's "creative and innovative approach to addressing public health challenges." From left are ADHS Director Will Humble, TARGET program manager Micah Panczyk and Bureau of EMS and Trauma System Medical Director Dr. Ben Bobrow.