

Outbreak Investigation

Training

The ADHS Office of Infectious Disease Services in partnership with the Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment Communicable Disease Branch is offering an intermediate level training on how outbreak investigation works in Arizona. The intended audience includes public health nurses, environmental health specialists, epidemiologists, and other public health staff with communicable disease job duties.

Monday, November 16
9 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Registration begins at 8:30 a.m.

Training begins at 9 a.m.

Black Canyon Conference Center

9440 N. 25th Ave

Phoenix, AZ 85021

Breakfast, lunch, and snacks will be provided.

Free parking.

For additional information
please contact Joli Weiss

Joli.Weiss@azdhs.gov
602-364-3675

After completing this training, participants will:

- Be able to define what constitutes an outbreak.
- Be able to identify when an outbreak investigation is necessary.
- Understand the basic steps of an outbreak investigation through didactic presentations and hands-on practice.
- Understand the roles and responsibilities of epidemiology, environmental health and laboratory in an outbreak investigation.
- Be aware of and know how and when to use outbreak resources and tools available to assist local public health agencies investigate outbreaks.
- Know how to document and report on outbreak findings.
- Be aware of communication strategies to employ during an outbreak.

Register by emailing the foodborne disease group at food@azdhs.gov

