

The 2010 "Be SunWise & Play Sun Smart" Poster Contest Winner is David McGraw of River Valley School. David and his teacher, Lacey Huft received on-field awards at the Arizona Diamondbacks June 7th celebratory baseball game. The Diamondbacks selected David's drawing from nearly 6000 statewide entries to be used in this year's SunWise sun safety campaign.

2009 Winner: Rachel Park (8th grade) and her teacher Frank Hendricsen of Bogle Junior High School in Chandler/Queen Creek celebrate Rachel's win at the Arizona Diamondbacks' May 27th game against the San Diego Padres with on-field awards, jumbotron display and press coverage. Congratulations!

"Be SunWise & Play Sun Smart" Like the Arizona Diamondbacks

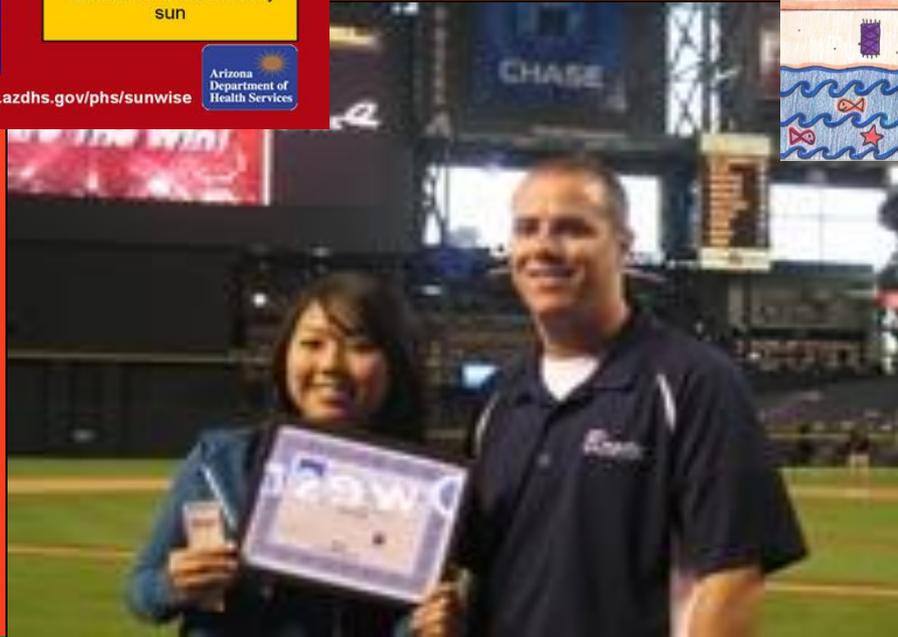

& the Arizona Department of Health Services

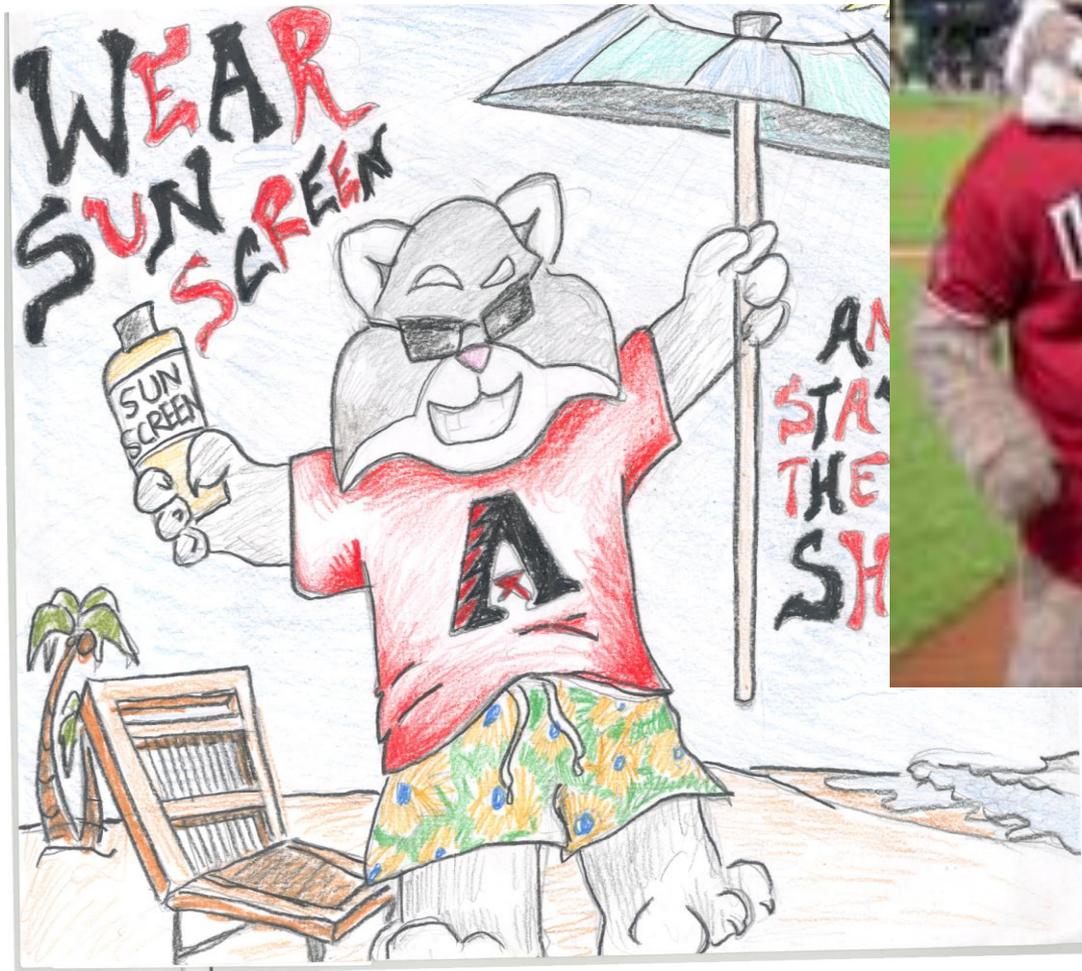

Tips to Protect Your Skin & Avoid Skin Cancer

- Wear a wide-brimmed hat when outdoors
- Cover skin with clothing
 - Protect eyes with sunglasses
- Avoid sunbathing, sunburns & tanning lamps
- Use SPF 15 sunscreen & lip balm
- Check the daily UV Index
- Limit time in the midday sun

Get Free Sun Safety Curriculum & Activities at: www.azdhs.gov/phs/sunwise

Congratulations 2008 Winner Richie Gunnell (11th grade), Mountain View High School in Mesa, and his teacher, football coach Matt Foreman, featured with D. Baxter the Bobcat during awards ceremony.

Congratulations to 2006 winner Brianna Larkin (2nd grade) and her teacher from Kyrene de la Estrella Elementary in Ahwatukee.

SAFE FROM THE SUN IS FUN: BE SUNSMART!

PROTECT YOUR SKIN WITH:

- Clothing
- Wide-brimmed hat
- Sunglasses
- Sunscreen SPF 15+
- Lip balm SPF 15+
- Umbrella
- Seek shaded play between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m.
- Check the daily UV index
- Avoid sun lamps, tanning booths

Learn more about SunWise and print free activities at:

www.azdhs.gov/phs/sunwise
602-364-3143 or 1-800-367-6412

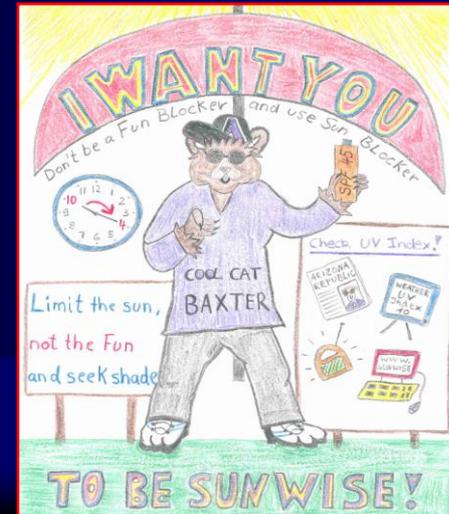

2006 Winning poster designed by Brianna Larkin 2nd grade, Estrella Elementary School

This publication is supported by a Prevention Health and Health Services Block Grant from the Centers For Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). If you need this Publication in alternative format, please contact the ADHS Public Information Office at 800-367-8939. SunWise is a trademark of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

Congratulations 2005 winner Joy-Ann Pierce (7th grade) and her teacher Karen Anderson of Copper Ridge Middle School in Scottsdale, featured here with Diamondback wives and head judge Jillian Kata, wife of player Matt Kata.

LIMIT THE SUN, NOT THE FUN: BE SUNWISE!

- PROTECT YOUR SKIN WITH:
- Clothing
 - Wide-brimmed hat
 - Sunglasses
 - Sunscreen SPF 15+
 - Lip balm SPF 15+
 - Umbrella
 - Seek covered play between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m.
 - Check the daily UV index
 - Avoid sun lamps & tanning booths

Learn more about SunWise and print free activities at:
www.azdhs.gov/phs/sunwise
 602-364-3143 or 1-800-367-6412

2005 Winning poster designed by Joy-Ann Pearce, 6th grade, Copper Ridge Middle School
 The Arizona Department of Health Services is an Equal Opportunity Employer. All rights reserved. ©2005. All other trademarks and registered trademarks are the property of their respective owners.

Congratulations 2004 Winner Shannen Pearce (4th grade), Desert Canyon Elementary, and her teacher, featured with Arizona Diamondbacks player Matt Mantei during the onfield awards ceremony. Right photo featuring Diamondback Wives judges Erica Mantei (Matt) and Christine Gonzalez (Luis).

Congratulations to 2003 winner Christian Bajo Pena (9th grade) and his teacher from San Simon School in southeastern Arizona. Christian received an on-field award, press coverage, threw out the 1st pitch at the game celebration and his drawing was reproduced for use in the Arizona SunWise sun safety poster campaign.

