3) Training – Spanish Bilingual Assistant: Introduction to Medical Interpreting

Orientation and testing dates: September 4, 18, or 25, 2010

Training Dates: Every Saturday from October 02 to December 18, 2010

Time: 8 am – 3 pm

Price: $350

Instructors: Barbara Rayes, Millie Donaldson, Jorge Masuello MD

Class Description: Spanish Bilingual Assistant is a sixty-hour introduction to medical interpreting for people who speak English and Spanish. Students who take this class apply what they learn by providing bilingual service in health care settings. Many students also go on to serve as medical interpreters.

There are three main categories of study: Language - Increase and organize your medical vocabulary by reviewing each system of the body; Culture - Learn techniques for helping people of different cultures communicate; and Practice - Build skills & knowledge related to interpreting (memory, position, making decisions, more)
